

JOIN the EUROPEAN MAP of INCLUSION

THE PROJECT

TEACHERS AHEAD – Digital skilled Teachers Acting for Higher and Inclusive Education

Teachers Ahead is a European project implemented under the Erasmus+ program KA2 - strategic partnerships and involves ten partners.

This project aims to generate opportunities of development through trainings and tools created for more inclusive schools and society.

THE NGO

ACMOS association

ACMOS is an Italian youth association.

Its aim is to promote and encourage civic participation of young people in their environment, thus contributing to the spread of the values and the practices of active citizenship. Its work is based on non-formal education as a vehicle for social inclusion and respect for differences

THE INTELLECTUAL OUTPUT

The EUROPEAN MAP of INCLUSION

One of the intellectual outputs of this project is the European Map of Inclusion which aims to:

- map inclusion opportunities for youth in Europe implemented by NGOs, schools and universities
- facilitate networking between social actors and entities, schools, and associations
- share best practices of inclusion
